Meeting of librarians at Panjab University

CHANDIGARH, MARCH 15.

A meeting of Chandigarh-based Academic and Research Institute librarians was held at AC Joshi Library, Panjab University, with an aim to sharing resources within the limits of copyrights.

Librarians from research institutions like the PGI, IMTECH, IISER, CRRID, MG State Institution of Public Administration, PEC, NABI, etc, took part in the meeting.

RK Kohli, Dean University Instructions, PU, presided over the meeting. While stressing the need for cooperation between research laboratories, including exchange of teachers, and resources, Kohli emphasised that this cooperation must percolate right up to the users.

"The idea of one common I-card for all students of the tricity will also be introduced, which will facilitate the use of resources of other institutes," he said. — TNS
