

THE HINDU BusinessLine

Infosys Foundation signs pact with IISER

PTI

Aims at supporting students from economically weaker section to pursue 'high quality'

Bengaluru, May 9:

Infosys Foundation, philanthropic arm of the IT major, has signed a pact with India and Research (IISER), Pune, to support students from economically weaker section

The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) aims at providing opportunities for ecc pursue high quality science education and research through scholarships, fellowship a release.

It said as part of the MoU, the corpus fund of ₹ 5 crore named as 'The Infosys Founc continue in perpetuity to benefit a minimum of 50 students annually.

The grant will be used towards the establishment of Infosys Foundation Scholarship students, Infosys Foundation Fellowships endowed to integrated PhD students and to PhD students who have excelled in their research work, the company added.

Infosys said the grant is aimed at fulfilling the Foundation's objective of creating eq poorer background and advancing the quality of research done at Indian institution

The establishment of scholarships, fellowships and travel awards provides opportur academic levels to gain from the grant, it said.

(This article was published on May 9, 2016)

MORE FROM BUSINESS LINE

RJio effect: Airtel, Vodafone to drop tariffs for post-paid users

RJio on Day 2: Delayed connections, unresponsive customer-care numbers

UN Ch

x

Printable version | Sep 7, 2016 4:58:39 PM | <http://www.thehindubusinessline.com/companies/infosys-found>